Alope,

Left you a voicemail this morning. Let me know if you'd like to find time to get together to discuss...

Thanks,

Cliff

Cliff,

Alope and I need to discuss the flowchart further, because I may have missed something. Let us get back to you on that. No need to spend any more time on it right now.

In the meantime, I know Alope was still looking for something.

Thanks,

Dave

Aloke and David,

The flowchart isn't quite right... Do you want to find time to meet next week so that we can go through it with you?

Also, Aloke, I know I owe you a response from our discussion last Wednesday. I expect to be able to get back to you later today.

Thanks,

Cliff

Cliff,

As an experiment, we prepared this flowchart describing the opt-out procedure. If you have any comment on this, we would be interested. Is it correct? At least we can refer to it in further conversation about the procedure.

Alope,

I was traveling Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of this week (which I think I may have mentioned when we spoke on Monday), and although I had hoped to provide more information to you by week's end, it looks like it's going to take me until next week. Hope that brief delay won't set you back.

Cliff, We would just like to get some clarification re the intent and implementation of the last procedure listed in the attachment of PG&E's SMOO AL filing. If you recall, this aspect was protested.

Hi Cliff:

Sorry for the interruption of your weekend. I have been out as well today. Let's plan to talk at 4pm on Mon.
Thanks for making time on short notice. It would be good to set up a bridge, as we may have another ED staffer call in. 30 min should be enough, I think.

Have a good weekend.

Hey Alope. I understand you'd like to find time to talk about our Opt-Out Program...

I've been out on vacation this week, back next. I'm free late in the day on Monday (4:00) if that works for a call.
I'm (unfortunately) doing some traveling on Tuesday - Thursday, so if not Monday, then perhaps between things during those days by phone, or on Friday.

Let me know what works best for you...

Happy 4th of July weekend.

Cliff
