Hello Managers,

We just want to let you all know that we are ready to start building for next year. The "Replacements Trade Store" is open for business and we will listen to any offers. Contact us between now and 8pm Monday if we have someone of interest to you. This is not a fire sale per-se; we are looking to get a stronger base for next year. Look forward to hearing from all of you...

There may be a trade between Newbiez and Replacements; they're still finalizing details. However, I was assured that it will not affect any of the transactions already made today.
