Hi Noel and Adam,

Thanks for this email. We would be happy to discuss LCFS further. I will coordinate with Andre and Redacted (since Deana is out on maternity leave) and we will send you some available times soon.

Please let me know if you have any questions in the meantime.

Best Regards,

Hi Genevieve,

To follow up to your suggestion from yesterday: Adam, Andy, and I would be willing to meet to discuss your thoughts on the LCFS. Please coordinate with the Andre and Deana to propose a time to have a conference call/meeting within the next week or two. Thanks.

Sincerely,

Noel Crisostomo
