Subject: RE: PGE August 2012 PDSR

Robert –

Per our conversation, attached is PG&E's August 2012 PDSR with the overall status column populated. I used four high-level options: under negotiations, in development, online, and expired/terminated. Please let me know if you have any questions regarding the status column.

Thanks,

Hello Meredith,

I was loading PGE's August 2012 PDSR into our database, and noticed that the PDSR filed did not have any high level categorization (e.g. "In Development", "Expired Terminated", "Under Negotiations") in Column A of the Project Information Tab.

Can you please resend me a new copy of the confidential report with these classifications included. I have included the copy of the August report (without high level classification), and a copy of the March report (with high level classification), for reference.

Thanks,
