I saw part of the game. It was dismal. Cal's offensive line offered no protection. Cal always plays UCLA tough at home but the Bruins look like a better team. I suppose Tedford is in his final year. If you change your mind, let me know.

I went to the Cal-Arizona State game yesterday. Enough said. Given Cal is 1-4 and I have seen them lose to Nevada, USC and Arizona State, I do not have the stomach to see another game (and probable loss) right now. So, I will mail you my tix (2) and parking pass and you can take whomever you wish to the game, which, by the way, starts at 7 PM. Need from you only one thing---best mailing address, sooner the better, and the tix will be on their way to you. My best.
