COMMENTS OF SAN DIEGO GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY (U 902 E) ON RESPONSE OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY TO ALJ RULING

In accordance with the direction provided in the Administrative Law Judge’s Ruling Requesting Additional Information from Southern California Edison Company Regarding Proposal not to Hold a 2012 RPS Solicitation (“ALJ Ruling”),¹ San Diego Gas & Electric Company (“SDG&E”), SDG&E files these comments regarding the response to the ALJ Ruling (“Response”) provided by Southern California Edison Company (“SCE”).^{2/}

In SCE’s Response, SCE explains that it has no near term Renewable Portfolio Standard (“RPS”) need and that the potential for declining tax benefits in 2016 does not justify an immediate solicitation. SDG&E agrees with SCE that there is no need for a 2012 RPS solicitation. Like SCE, SDG&E does not have a near term need and will have a better view of the progress of developing projects and their impact on its RPS need at a later point. SDG&E agrees that the public interest does not support holding a 2012 RFO in order to ensure procurement of long term projects that can utilize Investment Tax Credits (“ITCs”) before the possibility of a decrease in such benefits in 2016. SCE argues that such decrease does not necessary mean that it is better for ratepayers to procure today.^{3/} Even if there was a clear benefit to undertaking new procurement prior to the time decreases in ITC benefits take effect, a late 2013 or early 2014 solicitation would still allow for winning projects to be placed in service by December 31, 2015 in order to take advantage of the full ITC benefits.

For these reasons, SDG&E agrees with SCE that the Commission should not require a 2012 RPS solicitation.

Respectfully submitted this 10th day of September, 2012.
