

From: Frank Lindh
Sent: 10/25/2012 12:26:20 PM
To: Frank Lindh [Redacted]
Cc: Bottorff, Thomas E (/O=PG&E/OU=CORPORATE/CN=RECIPIENTS/CN=TEB3); Paul Clanon (paul.clanon@cpuc.ca.gov)
Bcc:
Subject: Re: [Redacted]

Correction and change of recommendation. As I just told Hyun, it's vital that y and Hyun call [Reda] directly today to invite the prosecution into the mediation process. Do NOT rely on any intermediary to make this communication for you. You are welcome to include your outside defense counsel on such a call, but make the call yourselves.

It also is urgent, in my view, that you do this ASAP.

Ideally, you should arrange to go over to [Redacte] office this afternoon and speak to her in person about this. Again, you can feel free to bring your outside defense counsel along, but you and Hyun should go yourselves -- and even Tony if you can persuade him to do so.

Also, please send me Hyun's email address, so I can copy him on my messages. I don't have his address here with me, and I do want to keep in in the loop on these communications.

Thanks.

On Oct 25, 2012, at 11:58 AM, Frank Lindh <[Redacted]> wrote:

- > She hasn't heard from her PG&E opposing counsel, Steve, today, so she will call him herself.
- >
- > She insists she has never asked for any sort of precondition to these talks. This appears to have been garbled by PG&E's outside defense counsel.
- >
- > She also will need high management authorization before agreeing to participate next week, so time is of the essence in reaching out to her.