That would be great, Tom. But I understand that you may have other obligations. Hope to see you there. I also invited Trina, now that she is a big-cheese.

Tom,

Understood. We'd love to have you join us, particularly since PG&E is a sponsor. If there is someone else you would like me to extend the invitation to, please let me know.

Regards and best,
Jeff

Jeff,
Thanks very much for the invitation; sounds like a great event.
I'll try to come, but it will depend on the outcome of gas settlement discussions, which are in progress. Hopefully, they'll be complete by the 8th.

Tom,

I don't recall if you have been to a Cleantech Open event. If not (or even if you have), I would like to invite you, as my VIP guest, to this year's Cleantech Open Global Forum, a spectacular two-day event with networking, receptions and over 100 carefully-selected startups from around the world. Details:

- Global Forum 2012, Nov 8-9, Hayes Mansion, San Jose, CA
- Up to 1000 attendees, including government, investors, business leaders, technologists and entrepreneurs

Please let me know if you would like to attend, or phone or email Wayne Janisch at the Cleantech Open on (650) 575.1300 or wjanisch@cleantechopen.com. He will be pleased to arrange a complimentary VIP ticket.

Best wishes,

Jeff
