Subject: R1203014 - DECA Reply Comments on Sept 7 storage workshop

Hello,

On behalf of Mr. Dorsi, please find the documents filed early today with the CPUC Docket Office.

Several parties have complained that DECA's attachments appear as ATTXXXXX.dat files. This appears to be a result of 64 bit vs. 32 bit data encryption between DECA's email servers and the servers of other parties. We are working to address this issue, but in the interim simply opening the files as PDFs via the "open as" option should work.

This service list have been broken into smaller pieces for emailing purposes.
