Subject: RE: I1201007 CPSD Mtn to Suspend Proceedings in Order to Facilitate Negotiations

NOTICE TO PARTIES IN I.12-01-007

As explained below, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) witnesses need not appear at 9:30 a. m. Monday morning but should remain available to appear on two hours notice.

On Friday October 5, 2012, a few minutes before 5:00 p.m., the Consumer Protection and Safety Division (CPSD) served a motion requesting the immediate suspension of all proceedings in this and other related dockets in order to facilitate negotiations toward a stipulated outcome. When I became aware of the motion a few minutes after 5:00 p.m., I determined that it was too late to cancel the evidentiary hearing set for Monday, October 8, 2012 at 9:30 a.m.

This e-mail notice is issued to advise parties that I intend to convene the hearing at 9:30 a.m. Monday as scheduled and proceed with a discussion of the CPSD motion as it impacts the hearing schedule. I believe that it may be appropriate to suspend the hearings in I.12-01-007 for a very few days to provide the respective assigned administrative law judges an opportunity to develop a comprehensive and coordinated response to the CPSD motion following responsive party input. However, I am not prepared to adopt that approach until I have discussed it with parties Monday morning. Pending that discussion, I am obligated to manage the hearing schedule as if the scheduled hearings will continue over the next two weeks.

Currently, PG&E witness Jane Yura is scheduled to appear for cross-examination on Monday morning, followed by PG&E witness Kris Keas as time allows later in the day. I will not require witness Yura to appear at 9:30. However, in light of the unsettled state of affairs, I ask that witnesses Yura and Keas remain on call and available to appear on two hours notice on Monday.

Administrative Law Judge Mark Wetzell
