I meant you should meet with Ferron's advisors even if he himself can't.

Hmm – you mean All advisors or just those in your shop? We'll meet with anybody, of course!

Swear to god, some days it's more evident than others... Almost two years into the job, and I still feel like I'm a combination of kicking ass and getting my ass kicked... At any rate, I'll double check with boss man about PSEP. I'm certain if it hasn't happened already that advisors would be very interested in doing a meeting with you all... I have particular concerns about the ROE, but that's another story.,

Yes, but not for the “constantly failing” category. You are one of the best, hands down. Hope you know that.

P.S. I think that one of these days, I'll as a gag gift make up the 'response time' award... In the constantly failing as an advisor category, the one who calls back the fastest is.... Drum rolls

You continually get the award for fasted response time at the CPUC . . .

We will standby re the meeting request; I suspect your crystal ball is working quite well ☺

And I'm happy about the no news/good news.

Do you find yourself wondering when this year will be over?? I do.

Thanks again Michael.
