Subject: RE: All-Party Meeting Notice A 12-03-026

Re: All-Party Meeting Notice A 12-03-026,

CARE will be represented at the all Party Meeting by Robert Sarvey. The topic CARE's oral input will cover include to object to this All Party Meeting because the City of Oakley [like the Contra Costa Generating Station LLC] is not a Party in this proceeding; yet the City of Oakley will be the beneficiary of ten million dollars if Contra Costa Generating Station is approved by CPUC. http://www.energy.ca.gov/sitingcases/oakley/documents/others/2010-10-20_City_of_Oakley_Cooperation_Agreement_TN-58810.pdf

This whole thing seems contrived to PG&E's benefit at best. No justification for not having the all party meeting in San Francisco [besides a tour of the plant site which benefits Contra Costa Generating Station LLC only] is given...

Additionally at previous meetings on this project [at the CEC] intervenors who oppose this project have recieved threats and verbal profanities from supporters; so additional security for the parking lot should be provided.

Mike Boyd-CARE

PS please re-notice the All-Party meeting's purpose including why a tour of the plant site is required before the Commission [presumably will] approve this project following the dog and pony show by the Contra Costa Generating Station LLC; and the City of Oakley first...all at ratepayers expense.
