Michelle,

Sorry to hear about your breast cancer; I'll be wishing you the best as you go through treatment.

I really appreciated your efforts to bring the parties together on the settlement; you handled a challenging group extremely well. I particularly appreciated your honesty and integrity throughout the process.

I haven't given up hope on a settlement, but realize it may have to wait until after we make some progress with the prosecutors.

I think you'll enjoy managing admin services, but audits are never fun.

Take care.

Tom

All- I wanted to let you know that I have asked Paul Clanon to allow me to step off of the San Bruno team given the resumption of hearings and the Department of Finance Audit that I will need to be dealing with in Administrative Services. In addition, I've told some of you about my health situation, but I will be starting chemotherapy to treat breast cancer this Wednesday, so something has to give...

Brigadier General Jack Hagan will assume the lead for the Safety and Enforcement Division (formerly CPD) team.

Thank you.
