Subject: Re: REMINDER - Conference Call To Review Joint IOU Rates Customer Survey for RROIR, Thursday January 31, 2013

We have very similar concerns about questions 2.1b and 2.1c. It seems highly unlikely that the average customer would possibly know how to answer the question, absent the education provided in section 3. Perhaps there could be some value in asking the question both before and after the education occurs to see how customer perceptions change? Either way, the way the question is phrased leads me to wonder, “what is meant by ‘work best for you’”? Doesn’t that really just mean “which of the following rates would (or could by implementing conservation strategies) result in the lowest monthly bill?” If this is the question, it is unclear how a customer could possibly answer with any certainty, absent the ability to compare each option in detail using his/her own energy data. As indicated by DRA’s comments, what would “work best” for a customer will certainly depend on the in-the-weeds details that are not provided by the generic options presented.

Hi,

DRA made a few comments on the survey questionnaire and the Choice Exercise document.

DRA anticipates that these tools will continue to change and may have more comments later. As DRA mentioned earlier, it may be premature to do the survey right now.

Therefore, DRA's providing the comments should not be interpreted as if DRA endorses the survey or the methodology at this time.
