

California Energy Systems for the 21st Century (CES-21)

Board of Directors

Jane Yura

PG&E, Vice President, Gas Standards and Policy

Doug Kim

SCE, Director, Advanced Technology

Jeff Nichols

SDG&E, Director of Information Security & Information Management

Dan Kammen

Daniel M. Kammen is Professor in the Energy and Resources Group Energy and Resources Group (ERG), Professor of Public Policy in the Goldman School of Public Policy and is Professor of Nuclear Engineering in the Department of Nuclear Engineering at the University of California, Berkeley. He is also the founding Director of the Renewable and Appropriate Energy Laboratory (RAEL).

K. Mani Chandy

K. Mani Chandy is the Simon Ramo Professor at the California Institute of Technology. Dr. Chandy received his Ph.D. from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Electrical Engineering at the Operations Research Center in 1969. He got a Masters from the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, and a Bachelors from the Indian Institute of Technology, Madras in 1965.

T.J. Glauthier

T.J. Glauthier is an advisor in the energy and “cleantech” area. He serves on the Boards of Directors of two publicly-traded companies: EnerNOC, Inc., a provider of demand-response services to the electric utility industry, and Union Drilling, Inc., a contract driller of oil and gas wells in shale deposits. He also serves on private boards of directors, including Kuokoa, a Hawaii renewable energy company.

Glauthier has served on advisory boards for companies in the areas of the smart grid, energy efficient building materials, algae-derived biofuels, innovative financing for residential solar systems, large-scale power plant engineering and construction, and energy management for small businesses. In addition, he sits on advisory boards at Stanford, the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, and the National Academy of Sciences.

Non-Voting Liaison to the Board of Directors

Ed Randolph

Energy Division Director

Executive Director

TBD