What a difference you make.

The 10 sleeping rooms will be a good start, perhaps especially for our speakers, and as I have asked around here the general feeling is that this will not be a problem for “the Californians.”

Have you responded to Tony’s note about the dinner yet? I think that will be a very good way to start things off on Monday.

In addition to the save the date notice, we need to make sure the letter (from Peevey, right?) goes out to Hersmann. I understand Kim starts tomorrow? Can we work with her to get the save the date out next week?

They only have 10 sleeping rooms but I checking the other Hyatt properties for more rooms.

We need to send out a save the date notice and there will a CEO/President dinner with me on the 6th to accommodate Tony.

Have fun in Texas and see you when you get back.

Hi EJ,

Thank you for your interest in the Grand Hyatt San Francisco for banquet space on May 7-8. I am very pleased to confirm space is available for your event. This space has just completed its renovation and has quickly become known as the newest and nicest space in all of San Francisco. It's truly a beautiful space designed by, and highlighting art work from, local artists –I know your guests will love it. For your review are the following:
