General

Looks like you were busy on symposium outreach yesterday -- we really appreciate and welcome your active engagement.

I'm sure you are already thinking about someone to handle logistics from the CPUC as we move forward. You mentioned Kim Malcolm, for one. It will be good to have that person involved from the start if at all possible in the hotel arrangements, as well as the invitation tracking and responses. You mentioned an on-site visit to the Hyatt next week. Both Jane Yura and I are away from SF on Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday are good days for me, if it works out then for the Hyatt and for you.

Regards,
Laura

Hello Jack and thank you for thinking about us. I will have one of our folks contact you or your designee on Monday if that's ok.

Best regards
David
