Subject: RE: Appendix C (I.12-01-007)

Dear ALJ Wetzell,

As you directed, CPSD, PG&E, CCSF, DRA and the City of San Bruno met and conferred this afternoon.

Shortly before that conference call, CPSD filed a motion for clarification. CPSD does not believe it can provide any further revision to its Appendix C until you rule on that motion. PG&E plans to file an opposition tomorrow to that part of the motion that suggests PG&E's original motion and your ruling were limited to emergency response.

PG&E believes it needs the revised Appendix C on all alleged violations to complete its reply brief. CPSD believes PG&E can address Appendix C by motion later. In its opposition to CPSD's current motion, PG&E will ask for five business days from receipt of CPSD's complete revised Appendix C to file its reply brief. CPSD opposes any extension of time for PG&E to file its Reply Brief. This does not apply to the schedule for the briefing on fines and remedies, which CPSD is not opposed to extending.

Subject: Appendix C

In light of (1) my continued intention to have a summary table of CPSDs alleged violations, (2) the broad scope of my ruling (all violation categories) and the narrow scope of CPSDs response (emergency response) and the resulting confusion, (3) the current due date for reply briefs, and (4) my travel status and limited access to resources, I direct parties to meet and confer and develop an appropriate procedural plan for my approval that meets my intention and resolves the confusion. I also ask that CPSD serve this email to the service list.
