Good morning Paul,

It does not look like the Chairman will be able to attend, but is interested in rescheduling.

Regards,

Subject: May 7 symposium

Good Afternoon –

I am writing on behalf of Chairman Hersman and the invitation to speak at your upcoming May 7th symposium. Unfortunately, over the last several weeks, with sequestration and the continuing resolution, the Chairman was cancelling travel plans because of financial uncertainties. At this time, it does not appear that the Chairman is going to be able to make the May 7th date. I note in the March 26th letter, President Peevey wrote that this was the first in a series of events. The Chairman would like to know whether she could reschedule for a future symposium date and in particular, whether any dates are available in late August as there are other speaking invitations in California. Please advise how you would like to proceed.

Thanks,

Tom
