Subject: LCC Tax Neutrality
Hi, Paul.
Just wanted to follow up from our conversation yesterday about your intent to talk President Peevey about the LCC tax neutrality provision and whether a meeting w the negotiators of this term of the Stip was even necessary.
In particular, I understood you to say you would be talking with him about where we are in the process and whether Mike would be able to give Frank the cover he need to accept the risks around whether our (PG&E and SC) current interpretation that intent of the Stipulation language and our current implementation approach around neutrality is satisfactorily within the four corners of the Stipulation or whether Mike simply deferred to Frank and Joel's interpretation.	eded the
Did you get the chance to discuss this with him?
Thanks,
