Sorry for the delay in sending this out. We were trying to embed it in an email so there wouldn't be an attachment, but it's getting overly time consuming at this point. Below is what I propose I send, along with the attachment attached. OK by you?

Hello,

Attached please find an invitation from Brigadier General (CA) Jack Hagan, Director of the California Public Utilities Commission's Safety and Enforcement Division, to a Natural Gas Safety Symposium titled, Forging a New Vision of Safety in California.

The Symposium is May 7-8, 2013, in San Francisco. The attached letter of invitation and agenda provide more information, including how to register.

Thank you, and please let me know if you have any questions.
