Subject: Some background docs for today's call

An updated Excel file with speaker info, a run at a revised agenda – those are in the first two tabs at the bottom of the file when you open it.

And also attached is a document I compiled so I could walk through the two days and have all our panel issues/questions in one place. It's a work in progress obviously.

Peter just confirmed some of his information and is reaching out to his panel so we have real and measurable progress this week!

Talk soon.
