Subject: PG&E's Reply Brief on Fines and Remedies

Dear ALJ Yip-Kikugawa and ALJ Wetzell:

We are writing concerning the treatment of confidential materials cited in PG&E's Reply Brief on Fines and Remedies to be filed on May 24, 2013. PG&E plans to cite certain materials contained in either confidential exhibits in the record or the sealed portion of the March 4, 2013 hearing.

PG&E proposes to do the following on May 24: (1) file and serve on all parties a public version of its brief with all confidential materials redacted; (2) serve on the active parties who are subject to Section 583 or protective order or confidentiality agreement a confidential version of the brief; and (3) file a confidential version of the brief under seal.

Please advise us whether it is necessary for PG&E to file a motion requesting permission to file the confidential (unredacted) version of its reply brief under seal.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott Westrich
