Subject: Announcement of Water Energy Project Coordination Group

To all parties in R-12-11-005, R-07-01041, and participants in Water-Energy Workshops:

On March 20th and 21st 2013, the Energy Division hosted workshops on Water and Energy programs and presented a staff proposal for a Cost Effectiveness framework for Water-Energy. Many participants expressed their interest in giving input throughout the development of this framework. As such, the Energy Division Staff (Staff) is forming a Project Coordination Group (PCG) for Water-Energy Cost Effectiveness and requesting a response from those interested in participating.

The PCG will fulfill a similar role as those PCGs which have been formed as part of the CPUC's Evaluation, Measurement and Verification (EM&V) of energy efficiency programs, which were created for specific topic areas or research objectives. PCGs are meant to be an interface between Staff, consultants, the IOUs, and other stakeholders.

The purpose of this Project Coordination Group is to provide input to Staff and consultants on the development of the water-energy Cost Effectiveness framework, including calculations for embedded energy in water. Specifically, the Project Coordination Group will provide input into the relevant tasks in the Energy Division's overall Cost Effectiveness Research Roadmap (DRAFT attached). In the near term (May-September), the group will help Staff identify credible sources of information that can be used in avoided cost calculations for water and embedded energy in water, and may be asked to produce a white paper of its recommendations regarding these values. In the long term, the group will review and provide feedback on contractor proposals and work products.

Please read the attached description of the PCG as it contains important information and rules governing participation.

If interested in participating, please submit your statement of qualifications by Wednesday May 29th to Meredith.Younghein@cpuc.ca.gov

Thank you,

Meredith Leigh Younghein
