Subject: RE: PG&E's Reply Brief on Fines and Remedies

Mr. Westrich,

Since PG&E would be citing to materials that have already been designated as confidential, or to testimony that was conducted in the closed portion of the evidentiary hearings, no motion is needed. However, the title of the "redacted" brief should note that the redacted material has already been designated as confidential. Additionally, there should be a footnote in the beginning of the brief stating that no motion to file the confidential version of the brief under seal is necessary because that material has already been designated as confidential. If you need additional guidance or specific language for this filing, please contact Martin Nakahara in the Docket Office at 703-2291 tomorrow morning.

Thank you,

Amy C. Yip-Kikugawa

Subject: PG&E's Reply Brief on Fines and Remedies

Dear ALJ Yip-Kikugawa and ALJ Wetzell:

We are writing concerning the treatment of confidential materials cited in PG&E's Reply Brief on Fines and Remedies to be filed on May 24, 2013. PG&E plans to cite certain materials contained in either confidential exhibits in the record or the sealed portion of the March 4, 2013 hearing.

PG&E proposes to do the following on May 24: (1) file and serve on all parties a public version of its brief with all confidential materials redacted; (2) serve on the active parties who are subject to Section 583 or protective order or confidentiality agreement a confidential version of the brief; and (3) file a confidential version of the brief under seal.

Please advise us whether it is necessary for PG&E to file a motion requesting permission to file the confidential (unredacted) version of its reply brief under seal.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott Westrich
