Yes, storage panel Sunday afternoon. I flew in for two hours! (we were not originally planning any NARUC participation this time, but were begged because of the topic)

Attached is the powerpoint, which NARUC was going to post somewhere but I'm not sure if they have yet.

I didn't go, but thought I saw your name on something. Was it storage related?

If you had a presentation, would you share it?

More later.

Thanks
