Last August. Her actual birthday is August 6, but don't remember when the dinner actually was. So yeah, nearly a year.

Thanks – this looks good and just like you: factual and to the point! Um, two hours?? That's kinda crazy.

Larry and I are meeting Jeanne and April for dinner in Berkeley tonight. Haven't seen either of them in nearly a year I think—can't recall when Jeanne's birthday dinner was?

Yes, storage panel Sunday afternoon. I flew in for two hours! (we were not originally planning any NARUC participation this time, but were begged because of the topic)

Attached is the powerpoint, which NARUC was going to post somewhere but I'm not sure if they have yet.

I didn't go, but thought I saw your name on something. Was it storage related?

If you had a presentation, would you share it?

More later.

Thanks
