Hello GO Tenants,

Corporate Security has received information that a protest may occur on Friday evening, July 26, 2013. The information we received advises the protesters intend to obstruct highways, bridges, ports and trains. Through the protest is not directed toward PG&E or any of its facilities, Corporate Security will continue to monitor the events surrounding this information and be in contact with law enforcement agencies throughout the Bay Area.

As a safety reminder, please do not engage the protesters or debate their concerns. Remember to be aware of your surroundings and if driving, increase your following distances should the protest occur in front of you. Corporate Security will provide updates if should additional information is received from our intelligence sources.

Safety Tip: Cell phones and tablets have become one of the most frequently stolen items throughout the nation. Be aware of those around you and secure the items out of sight when they are not in your possession.

Thanks,
