Subject: RE: PG&E gas operations org chart

Hello Nat –

Here's the most recent org chart for Gas Operations (we update every few months, so when the new one is ready for September, I will forward it to you). All-things-gas, are under Nick's responsibility, and if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to give me a call.

Thanks,

Jane

Hi Jane,

It was a pleasure meeting with you and the other PG&E management in the gas operations area last week. As part of the follow up, I was hoping we could get an electronic copy of the org chart for gas operations. Also, I wanted to confirm that everything related to gas (e.g. TIMP, GRC, planning) are under Nick's responsibility.

Best,

Nat
