Marzia –

Here is an example of a person with usage in June and July billed on 7Aug. However, our proceedings data expert, Deb Ghosh, and I spoke about your strong desire to get the city-level data in time for the 20th of the next month. There will be some very tiny imperfections with this approach, but we can accommodate it if you are willing to accept the imperfections. Let me know if you have any questions.

All I want to see is one bill that ended in July, but the customer was billed at the end of August.

I've asked for the team to show you a bill that shows that serials that start late in the month take a while to come out. Thanks!

Sid - please show me a July bill that PGE billed the customer in late August. Today would be great.
