Subject: RE: CNG vehicle customer losing access to Marin CNG refueling station complaint

Elizabeth –

We spoke to him before, and explained the closing-time issue to him and the safety concerns, and we left a message with him today offering to talk to him more about it. We're also going to make sure he knows where the other fueling stations are, although I am sure he knows. But that's all we've done – I am sure that he is not perfectly pleased since it does represent an inconvenience to him.

Do you know if you all responded to him?

Take care!

yours, sid

Hi Sid,

Thanks for looking into this.

Attached is the letter to the CPUC sent by the CNG customer. FYI: I have not contacted the customer.
