Subject: Picarro HQ visit

Gentlemen,

It was nice working with you this week to demonstrate our usage of the Picarro Surveyor technology. I have had a chance to speak with our Picarro contacts and they are pretty open to almost any time for you to stop by for a visit to their headquarters in Santa Clara. We will likely join you with someone from our team and you can feel free to invite anyone else from your group as well.

I would like to suggest next Wednesday, October 9th at around 11 AM.

Picarro is located at:

Picarro, Inc. – Google Maps link

3105 Patrick Henry Drive

Santa Clara, CA 95054

Please get back to me at your earliest convenience with your availability and I will send an official calendar invite to block out this time.

Thanks,
