Hahaha! Actually, I should do it. You know my career depends, in part, on seeming like I'm more interested than I am.

Do I seem terse? Blame the thumb keyboard.

I think you should send a big thank you note, too. You could be made VP when Tom comes back from vacation!

Subject: CFTC Carnival Recap - THANK YOU!

Reg Affairs Employees,

The CFTC Carnival Committee would like to say THANK YOU for your support to the Carnival event. The Carnival turned out to be fun and it was a great success. Yeah!!! It demonstrated the creativity and passion that our group has, and most of all our competitiveness to win just about anything. Your team booths were original, ingenious, colorful, and artfully crafted. Plus it was fun to play! We had a great crowd from both within and outside the department who came to try their luck, have fun, and support our communities. But more importantly, the proceeds from the Carnival (see bottom) will benefit the three charitable organizations highlighted by our employee speakers at our CFTC Kickoff event (Girls on the Run, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, and Cameron House).

The Carnival Committee would like to thank the following people for their support and assistance during the event:

- [Redacted] Brian, Tom, Dede and Trina, for their generous donations of the prizes for carnival winners!!
- [Redacted] The employees of the 10th floor who unknowingly agreed to host the Carnival and had to endure the crowd, noise and the dropped popcorn in front of their offices.
- [Redacted] All of the Directors and their employees who help put the wonderful and creative games together and help staff the games.
- [Redacted] [Redacted], [Redacted], [Redacted] and Katherine Bird for making TONS of popcorn and making it taste so, so good! And InspirAsian ERG for letting use their popcorn cart.

- [Redacted] Our bean counters (but in our case ticket counters) [Redacted] [Redacted] a.

- [Redacted] The Campaign Donor Reps/Team Member who helped with the marketing of the event (a.k.a. passing out and posting of fliers) and ticket sales. [Redacted]
