From the same set of aphorisms:

Never get involved in a boy and girl fight.

Develop a kindly and avuncular manner. Interdependence is the keyword, enlightened interdependence. Life in all its rich variety, take a little, leave a little.

If, after having been exposed to someone's presence, you feel you've lost a quart of plasma, avoid that presence. You need it like you need a case of pernicious anemia.

Beware of whores who say they don't want money. The hell they don't. What they mean is they want more. Much more.

Do I seem terse? Blame the thumb keyboard.
