This looks like all kinds of awesome. I hope 9 out of 10 questions were about jaywalking.

I think that I'll be able to participate but can't be positive. There's a possibility that I'll be out of the office that afternoon but won't know for sure until that morning.

With our all-hands/recognition meeting being moved to next Tuesday, December 10, can you please verify that you will be available to participate in the Reg Affairs' Safety Feud game that is scheduled during the meeting. The game should start at around 3:45 p.m. and last 10-15 minutes. Shelly has already informed me that she has a conflicting meeting and will not be able to participate.

Congratulations! You have been selected (or as Katherine puts it “volun-told”) to participate in our Reg Affairs’ Safety Feud game that is part of our next all-hands/recognition meeting scheduled for December 5 from 3-5 p.m. The Safety Feud game will be played similar to the TV game show Family Feud, but will incorporate safety messages. The game will help kick off the activities for the meeting.

If you plan to attend the meeting, no further action is required at this time and just be ready to play at the beginning of the meeting. If you are unavailable to attend the meeting, please let me know so that I can find a replacement team member.

The teams will be as follows:

| Red Team | Blue Team |
|-------------------|------------------|
| Trina Horner | Tom Bottorff |
| Shelly Sharp | Brian Cherry |
| Meredith Allen | Sid Dietz |
| Lanette Kozlowski | Erik Jacobson |
| Redacted | John Hughes |

And yea, it’s the gals against the guys!

If you have any questions, please give me a call or email me.

Thanks,

Redacted
