Jane,

Congratulations!! You are always so full of energy and interest in what you do, I have trouble imagining you retired, but hope that you have something fun planned to keep you busy. I really enjoyed working with you as well and learned a great deal from you. Your retirement is going to be hard on PG&E, as you'll be leaving some very large shoes to fill. They'll probably need to hire at least two people to replace you. Thank you for the kind words as well.

Best of luck to you and enjoy some well-earned time to do whatever you like.

Warmest,

Liza

Liza, I want to let you know that I'll be retiring from PG&E at the end of the month – and that I have enjoyed working with you over this past year. Thank you for helping navigate the issues we faced, and always being willing to give us an opportunity to be heard.

I know your future is bright, and you have many great things ahead.

Jane
