Richard

Have I got the person for you . . . Redacted is our resident expert on Rules 15 and 16 and has been involved in estimating at PG&E for many years. He's a Manager of Gas Distribution Design.

I gave him your phone number. Is there a good time for him to call you?

Regards,

Laura

Subject: PG&E Gas Rules 15 and 16

Hi Laura: I hope all is well with you. I'd been meaning to ask you this for some time. Occasionally, I get questions related to gas main and service extension requests and try to answer them as best as I can, but I don't really feel like I fully understand the process.

Could you please put me in touch with someone at PG&E who can explain PG&E Gas Rules 15 and 16 to me?

Richard
