Tom,

Great and thank you. My retirement plan is I have no plan. I am just going to see what comes up that sounds like fun, is at a slower pace and not so time intensive, and fewer headaches. I will be around for several weeks in the office and then on leave for several months before my final departure.

General,

I've spoken with our IT and safety teams about this, and they're both supportive of making the change. They also appreciated the suggestion.

I have one more governance committee to clear, and the change will be made.

On another note, I was really sorry to hear about your decision to retire. I've been thinking about it myself, but hope to hold on another year.

I wish you the best in whatever comes next.

Tom
