I think I'm going to be useless today. At least I have a doc apt this afternoon, so I leave at 3.

Downside is that we now only have one car, so I have to ride there. Its only 2 miles from my house, but I'm not sure I have what it takes...

Wow, quite a climb! I can imagine you being a bit worn out today. You could take a nap on BART and take it back and forth to Milbrae.

Another day, another 3000+ ft of climbing. My legs are just about done. My road ride tomorrow is going to cripple me if I don't take it easy.

The lady sitting by the window next to me on bart had to poke me at Montgomery to wake me so she could get off at her stop. I guess I'm pretty gassed.
