Subject: Wi-Fi issues in San Francisco

Good afternoon,

The Wi-Fi service in San Francisco's 505 Van Ness office is currently unavailable. It appears to be the result of hardware problem with the Aruba Wi-Fi controller. Our Network team is actively looking into this issue and working the technical support . We hope to have this issue resolved by the end of day today.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact our IT Service Desk at 415-703-1767. We thank you for your patience in this matter.
