Subject: R.14-02-001 -- California ISO request for extension of time to file OIR reply comments

Judge Gamson:

The California ISO respectfully requests an extension to the filing deadline for reply comments filed in response to initial comments regarding the Order Instituting Rulemaking (OIR) in docket no. R.14-02-001. Per ordering paragraph seven of the OIR, initial comments were due February 20, 2014, and replies to such comments are due February 27, 2014. The ISO filed its initial comments on February 20 and understands that approximately 10-15 other parties filed comments as well. Aside from one party, it does not appear that the ISO was served with comments. Additionally, as of 6:00 PM on February 26, 2014, no party comments have been posted to the online docket card at cpuc.ca.gov.

As explained in its opening comments, the ISO views the CPUC rulemaking in this docket as a critical step towards ensuring long-term electric system reliability. To ensure that parties have an adequate opportunity to consider initial comments in this important proceeding and offer potential response, the ISO requests that all parties be given an extension of the February 27 deadline. Specifically, the ISO requests that reply comments be due one week after all comments filed on February 20 are posted to the online docket card.

Per rule 11.6, earlier today the ISO informed parties of its intent to make this request. The Center for Energy Efficiency and Renewable Technologies expressed support for the motion. The Independent Energy Producers Association, Calpine, The Utility Reform Network, and Marin Clean Energy all indicated that they did not oppose the request.

Thank you for considering this request.
