So, if the meeting is just with advisors, Sally should coordinate with Cris, but she likely knows that. I am happy to meet, but by the end of March will be tough. April is better. I think it would be helpful to at least include Mel Charles in the conversation as well, since she will be handling the primary advising on the GT&S case (with help from me and others). But she will be the primary point of contact.

Julie

Could we have a brief meeting to introduce you to Sumeet Singh who takes Jane Yura's former position as VP of Asset and Risk Management in Gas Operations? Sumeet isn't new to PG&E, and you likely have crossed paths before, but I'd like to give you two a chance to talk about background and approach to this position as it is critically important to our regulatory communications.

May I ask Sally to coordinate with Scott to set up a 20 minute conversation?

Obviously not urgent, but I'd hope we could get something scheduled by the end of March.

Thanks

Laura
