Carl - I was going to reach out to you just when I got your email. I'm going to need to reschedule. Our son Alex came down with a severe case of the hives as a result of a virus while he was on antibiotics for an ear infection. I'm home today and tomorrow to follow up with the Dermatologist and then I'm taking him to the ENT specialist for a evaluation as to whether he is suitable for ear stents. My apologies. I will reschedule as soon as I get in the office Thursday.
