Thanks Cris!

Sally will be reaching out. This isn't urgent, obviously, but we'd like to get it scheduled in April.

So, if the meeting is just with advisors, Redacted should coordinate with Cris, but she likely knows that. I am happy to meet, but by the end of March will be tough. April is better. I think it would be helpful to at least include Redacted in the conversation as well, since she will be handling the primary advising on the GT&S case (with help from me and others). But she will be the primary point of contact.
