Two ideas:

Monterey bay. Skip the aquarium (although it is really awesome), and go tidepooling.
Stay in Lee Vining in a motel (I can make a few recommendations) near mono lake. Hike the high mountain passes, or go out and explore the nearby ghost town.

I often find Cat 3 races to be incredibly negative, with everything chased down for no reason, which leads to pretty low average speeds. Not this time. As I rolled up to the start line, I reminded myself this was my first proper road race in who knows how long (Leesville in 2012?) and I was racing Pass/Fail
