Subject: FW: Core Transport Agent (CTA) Daily Escalated Complaints Report - March 19, 2014

Hi Phil: Just a quick update, we are still getting these CTA complaints daily (as shown below). Hopefully we will not have to continue counting them.

I sent you a note earlier today, just checking in to see if your Director is in favor of PG&E continuing to assist these customers, but granting PG&E permission place these complaints in a separate bucket and for PG&E not to count these complaints against PG&E's complaint reduction metrics, since the customers are complaining about the CTA and not PG&E. Thanks again for all your help. Lavern
