Thanks Meredith. Do we have to be on the drafting committee to be able to comment?

Liza,

Here is information on drafting team and overall timeline. The first draft will be issued for stakeholder comments on 4/7 and comments are due within 15 days, 4/22.

Thanks,
Meredith

1) There are eleven members on the drafting team. Susan Ivey - Exelon is the chair and Lou Oberski - Dominion is the vice chair. The other members are PG&E, SCE, National Grid, Kansas City Power & Light, FPL, Southwest Power Pool, Tri-State Gen & Tran Association, Capital Power, and Santee Cooper.

2) This is a fast moving process since NERC has until June 5, 2014<x-apple-data-detectors://0> to respond to FERC. Here is the high level preliminary schedule:

* March 24 - drafting team kickoff call

- * March 28 - 1st drafting team conference call
- * April 1 - Technical Conference in Atlanta
- * April 2 to 4 - drafting team meeting in Atlanta
- * April 7 - Draft reliability standard posted for 15-day stakeholder comment follow by a 5-day initial ballot
- * April 30 to May 1 - If needed, drafting team meeting in Atlanta
- * 1st week of May - If needed, additional draft and additional ballot
- * June 5 or earlier - NERC submit proposed standard to FERC
