Could you please send Louis PG&E's responses to the protests received regarding the station power advice filings?

Thanks,

Hi Erik,

Re: this Advice Letter:

It's likely that PG&E responded to protests to this Advice Letter (and possibly to all of the previous Advice Letters that dealt with Station Power).

Unfortunately, these PG&E responses are not in my file, and I've been unable to find them on the PG&E website.

Please investigate: Did PG&E respond to protestants of : AL 3951-E, AL 3951-E-A, or AL 3951-E-B ?
If so, please forward a copy of those responses to me ASAP.

Please contact me if you have questions.

Thanks!

Louis Torres

Lou,
Yes, you are correct. Schedule S is the only tariff at issue in AL3951-E-B.
Erik Jacobson is backing me up whole I'm out. I've copied him here. His office number is 415-973-4464.

Sorry to interrupt your time off.
Can you refer me to someone ?
I'm close to finishing up on this resolution for station power, but I need verification on a few items.

I'll call you tomorrow.
Lou

As I understand it, the only PG&E tariff affected by this Advice Letter is Schedule S, Standby Service, correct?

Are there any otherwise applicable tariffs that are affected by this Advice Letter?

Thanks,
Lou
