Subject: Final report from Exponent on the Carmel incident

Sorry for the delay in getting this report to you this afternoon.

We still intend to send you a transmittal communication that describes our next steps in more detail and which provides both the previous draft report you saw last week and our comments on the draft. But in the interest of time and email space, we're passing this on for now.

You'll be getting another communication from Sumeet Singh with the added information by tomorrow morning.

Thanks,

Laura
