Thanks, Laura.

I don't think I received the updated Outlook invitation. The only update I received was a message and not an invitation listing Tracey Blackburn's phone number.

Yes, the middle one. You should have received an updated Outlook invitation earlier today, but it's Building Y. You have met there before. It's the building where we had the PAS 55 discussion.

Laura:

Do you know which of the three buildings will the meeting be held at?
